

International Society for Advancement of Cytometry

Thank you for considering a donation to the ISAC Fund for Global Cytometry Education. Donations to the following ISAC funds will be used according to the terms of the fund unless otherwise noted. Donations made to ISAC may be deductible as a charitable contribution for US federal income tax purposes. An acknowledgment letter of your contribution and donor status will be sent to you.

Dollar Amount	Title	Description
	CYTO University	ISAC's online portal for cytometry education features courses, webinars and recordings on flow cytometry, image cytometry and Shared Resource Labs.
	ISAC's International Cytometry Workshops	ISAC holds cytometry workshops in India, China, Bangkok, Turkey and other locations around the world.
	ISAC Scholars Program	Designed for younger ISAC members and those new to cytometry, this prestigious, five-year program enhances the scientific and leadership experiences of emerging leaders in the field and helps develop the future leaders of ISAC.
	Shared Resource Lab (SRL) Emerging Leaders Program	This leadership development program is designed to enhance and develop the next generation of emerging leaders in SRL operations who will also help advance cytometry and ISAC.
	CYTO Travel Support Program for Students and SRL Junior Staff	ISAC provides travel awards to students and junior SRL staff whose abstracts have been approved for either oral or poster presentations to ensure they have the financial resources to attend CYTO.
	FlowRepository	This database is a collection of flow cytometry experiments where you can query and download data collected and annotated according to the MIFlowCyt Standard.
	International Cytometry Certification Examination (ICCE) Program	The cytometry certification program recognizes professional excellence among cytometrists, aids cytometry employers in identifying qualified cytometrists and improves the quality of cytometry applications worldwide.
	Where Support Is Most Needed	General donations to the ISAC Fund for Global Cytometry Education will be dedicated to support ISAC's critical education priorities and to respond to new areas of need as they arise.

Matching Gift Fund: If you are planning on contributing to an ISAC fund, a Matching Gift contribution is an easy way to provide additional support to ISAC. If you or your spouse is employed by a company or organization that has a Matching Gift program, please consider designating ISAC as a recipient of the matching funds. Any questions? Contact ISAC via email at isac@isac-net.org.
